YRPC Writes Cards for Seniors

YRPC members wrote fall greeting cards to the community seniors. Through our cards we hoped to express our care and prayers for the seniors during these times. I really enjoyed writing and decorating the cards as it gave me a creative relief from my online school work. I hope all the Salt River seniors take care and enjoy their cards. Thank you Senior Services for helping us get the cards out to the seniors through their meal delivery program.

YRPC Hosts Virtual Workshop

YRPC hosted a mask making workshop while talking about the importance of voting. Mayor Alexis Hermosillo from El Mirage joined the workshop. Participants asked her questions about her important job as Mayor. We appreciate everyone for participating and we appreciate Mayor Hermosillo for joining us!

My First Time Voting

Having just turned 18 this past June I finally got the opportunity to vote in this year's presidential election. I was excited and slightly worried that I might do something wrong and embarrass myself. Thankfully it went smoothly. I participated in something that I've been advocating for, despite not being of age to vote. I wish we weren't in the situation we are in right now so we could make more of a celebration out of it, but I'm still happy to have had the opportunity to vote at all. After all, voting is just one step in the many actions you can take in creating change, your voice doesn't end at the polls!
